REPORT OF SUPERINTENDENT OF SCHOOLS

To the Citizens of New Boston:

Teacher Changes

The close of last year brought to a close the services of three teachers: Mrs. Marion Zellow in high school, Miss Christine Darling, teacher of grades 4, 5, and 6, and Mrs. Grace Archibald, teacher of the primary room.

To fill these vacancies Miss Dorothy Jones, of Manchester, was elected to the high school position. Miss Jones is a graduate of the N. H. University and had one year of teaching experience before coming here.

Miss Dorothy Kuehn, of Manchester, was elected to the position as teacher of grades four, five, and six. Miss Kuehn graduated from Plymouth Normal and has taught two years previous to this.

Miss Dorothy Crowell, who taught last year at No. 13 was assigned to the primary room. Miss Harriet Anderson of Goffstown, just graduated from Keene Normal school, was elected to teach at No. 13.

All of these teachers have taken up their new assignments in splendid fashion. It so happens that all the pupils in the village are directed by teachers especially well equipped to teach music as is very evident to any one who visits the schools. Music can be so "handled" that young people hate it. But not so in New Boston. Here they enjoy that part of their work, if "work" it can be called. The High School agent from the State Department of Education, in his report regarding New Boston High School, commented in a most complimentary way on the work of the High School double quartet in the school and community.

Attendance and Tardinesses

The high schools of the state including large and In New Boston the per cent was 95.06, just at the state small had an average for attendance of 95.08 per cent. average. The state average for high school tardiness was .8 per pupil. In New Boston the high school per cent was .4—just half of the state average—a very good record.

In the elementary schools of the state the average per cent of attendance was 95. Here the elementary per cent was 94.—just one per cent below state average. In the number of tardinesses, the average for all elementary pupils of the state was .95 or less than one tardiness per pupil. Here the number of tardinesses for each pupil was 1.7—or almost twice the state average. Not so good.

At the beginning of the year Dr. Fraser gave all pupils a physical examination. In addition to that from time to time, he examines or diagnoses as circumstances seem to require. Mrs. Edith Walker, R. N., continues as health supervisor. The defects corrected can be counted. But no exact reckoning can be given to indicate the troubles avoided through the school plan of health supervision. The constant oversight and frequent inspection and examination are a somewhat intangible, but certain real health asset to the community.

The Women's Club continues again this year its fine contribution of "something hot" to supplement the lunch, necessarily cold, brought from home. If those who made this possible could see the "enjoyment" of the pupils each noon they would feel each day a new and genuine "vote of thanks."

At present the Prize Speaking Contest for this year seems assured. This again reflects the interest and contributions of organizations which provide funds for prizes and sometimes more. The coaching this year will be taken care of by Miss Dorothy Jones, of the high school staff.

To the teachers, members of the school board and to the many who co-operated in our work, I wish again to extend every appreciation.

Respectfully submitted,

J. BYRON TARNEY,

Superintendent of Schools.
